

CATH HOWE

www.cathhowe.com

I am an experienced primary and secondary teacher of English and Drama so I have lots of ideas of different kinds of sessions to offer schools. I am flexible, reliable and love to work creatively in the classroom.

Events

Traditional Author Talk - On inspirations for writing, exploring how my books came about and how I develop my plots.

Call the Puffins - Based on the new Call the Puffins series, an interactive younger fiction event where children can discover the island of Egg, meet Muffin the puffin, draw and discover more about real puffins.

Finding Stories - Using objects and images to ignite stories. I have a huge collection of unusual props, warm-ups and prompts to get ideas flowing.

Creating Drama Scripts - How to bring characters to life and have fun with plots. Draws from my drama book Let's Perform.

Workshops which encourage empathy and class discussion with short writing tasks, inspired by characters from my Nosy Crow books. Themes include: Walking in Another's Shoes, The Power of Precious Objects, Being New, How to be Us, The Who Did It Moment

Details

- Audience size: up to 30 for workshops, up to 500 for in-person talks, unlimited for online talks.
- Fee: Please contact me for current rates.
- Locations:

(Without accomodation provided) Within one-and-a-half hours public transport of Kingston-upon-Thames, Cambridge or Brighton.
(With accomodation provided) Open to discuss.